Andy, Mark and James,

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Our ask: do we see any factual errors in this draft? Or anything deeply troubling or missing? Minor edits are not being solicited from us.

Deadline: I need your response by 3 PM, so I can digest/consolidate and send on to Science before COB today.

If you three can consolidate your thoughts for me, that would be great as I am trying to staycation today.

I have not read it closely yet, because I wanted you to have as much time as possible.

Thanks,
John
